

Wanted For The 2010 Iowa POA Show Season: Iowa POA Royalty Contestants!

Contest to be held in Cedar Rapids, Iowa
Saturday, August 8, 2009

Tiny Tot Princess and Tiny Tot Prince contest will be held following the lead line class on Saturday.

Princess, Prince, Queen, and King Contest will be held Saturday evening at the conclusion of the judged portion of the day and before the game classes.

Judging will be on the basis of appearance, a horsemanship pattern, sportsmanship, and of course your "smile".

Contestants need to be Iowa POA members and have participated in 60% of the 2009 Iowa Shows.

Contestants who have held a royalty title in the past need only to sit out one year before they try out again.

Royalty Queen or King write and submit an article for the youth page in the National POA magazine monthly for one year.

If you are selected to be part of the Iowa POA Royalty you are expected to attend and participate at:

- The Iowa POA Banquet in November 2009, held in Des Moines, Iowa
- The Iowa Horse Fair in early April 2010, held in Des Moines, Iowa

The Horse Fair is prime opportunity to show case our breed and association as a youth group.
It is expected that you will participate!
